

David, Bonifacio
Attorney at Law

Date of Birth: 16 August 1984
Address: 35, Rue de la Mairie, P.O. Box 6569, 1211 Geneva 6, Switzerland
Nationality: Portuguese
Current Position: LALIVE, Attorney at Law

Attorney at Law, International Arbitration/Public International Law Practice Group, LALIVE, Geneva (2008-present)

Trainee, International Arbitration Practice Group, Schellenberg Wittmer, Zurich (2008)

Trainee, Latin American team, ICC International Court of Arbitration, Paris (2007)

Trainee, International Trade Law Division, United Nations Office of Legal Affairs – UNCITRAL, Vienna (2007)

Trainee, International Institute for the Unification of Private Law – UNIDROIT, Rome (2007)

Trainee, Litigation and arbitration group, Vieira de Almeida & Associados, Lisbon (2006)

Professional Experience

Experience under ICSID Convention and Rules, UNCITRAL Rules, ICC Rules, LCIA Rules, AAA Rules, Swiss Rules and ad hoc arbitration. Counsel in 21 international arbitrations and limited involvement as counsel or as secretary of the arbitral tribunal or in enforcement of arbitral awards in 25 other cases.

Arbitration Experience

Master in International Dispute Settlement from the University of Geneva (2008-2010)

Post-graduate Diploma in International Trade Law from the University of Turin (2008)

Master degree in Law (summa cum laude) from the UCP Law School, Lisbon (2002-2007)

Education Background

Natural resources and energy (oil & gas, mining, electricity, renewable energy)

Expertise

Portugal, Brazil and Switzerland

Practice Location/ Jurisdiction

Portuguese, Spanish, English, French, Italian, German

Working Languages

Experience in natural resource disputes in Angola, Sudan, Nigeria, Ethiopia and Ecuador

Other Relevant Experience