

Zannis Mavrogordato
Barrister and Arbitrator

Date of Birth: 17 May 1976

Address: 7 Charterhouse Buildings, London UK

Nationality: British

Current Position: Barrister and Arbitrator at Twenty Essex

Professional Experience

Over 20 years of experience as a Barrister

Over 10 years of experience as an Arbitrator

Arbitration Experience

Zannis is a Barrister, French Avocat and Arbitrator at Twenty Essex in London. He is a specialist in international commercial and investment arbitration, and has conducted proceedings for Governments, multinationals, and HNW individuals all around the world. He has lived and worked in France, Romania and Japan, as well as the UK, and has particular experience and expertise in disputes with a connection to CEE and CIS.

His work as Arbitrator has been described as:

"combin[ing] sharp analytic skills...with strong intuition"

"his award drafting was first class"

"an absolutely first-class arbitrator"

"I thought the quality of Mr Mavrogordato's decision-making on matters of fact and law was excellent"

"highly efficient"

"scrupulously fair"

"exemplary speed and efficiency in his handling of all aspects of the arbitration"

Education Background

BA and MA in Law, Cambridge University (St. John's College)

Expertise

Commercial Arbitration

Investment Arbitration

FIDIC Construction

Joint Ventures

Energy

Mining

Practice Location/ Jurisdiction

London, UK

Working Languages

English and French (fluent)
Romanian and Japanese (basic)

Other Relevant Experience

Worked on numerous arbitrations with Georgian parties and/or relating to projects in Georgia

Sat as a DAB Member in a FIDIC construction project in Georgia

Listed Arbitrator on the SIAC Panel (Singapore), ICDR Panel (US), HKIAC Panel (Hong Kong), DIAC Panel (UAE), KCAB Panel (Korea), SCCA Roster (Saudi Arabia), AIAC Panel (Malaysia), and the CACI List (Romania)

Partner-Fellow (elect) of the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, Cambridge University