

Tea Megeneishvili

Lawyer

Address: Teinfaltstraße 8-8A, 1010 Wien

Nationality: Georgian

Current Position: Head of Legal Compliance Service at TMF Austria

Professional Experience

Head of Legal Compliance Service at TMF Austria
Associate at Specht Böhm Rechtsanwalt GmbH
Adviser at Ministry of Fuel and Energy of Georgia
Associate at Migriauli & Partners
Adviser at Supreme Court of Justice of Georgia
Adviser at Parliament of Georgia

Arbitration Experience

Tea Megeneishvili's experience covers arbitrations under the ICC Rules, the Vienna Rules, the UNCITRAL; the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) and the Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC Institute); ad hoc arbitrations under the Georgian Arbitration Act.

She is experienced in disputes involving the main aspects of commercial transactions, in particular disputes relating to joint ventures, distribution and agency, and a broad range of disputes in the fields of construction of private projects and public infrastructure, disputes concerning production, delivery and pricing of various materials, mergers and acquisitions related disputes; telecom investment disputes as well as investment treaty disputes.

Education Background

Tbilisi State University (Diplomas in Law with Honors)
University of Bologna, State University of Milan, Free University of Social Sciences (Luiss) "Guido Carli", LL.M.
University of Modena and Reggio Emilia
University of Vienna (PhD candidate)

Expertise

- Acting as a principal lawyer, Tea Megeneishvili managed project teams and handled numerous corporate transactions, including IPOs, mergers and acquisitions, financings in CIS. Represented Austrian issuers seeking access to the CIS capital markets and to the international capital markets, portfolio and strategic investors in structuring their investments in CIS. Represented clients in international ad hoc and institutional arbitration. Negotiated matters with government authorities. In particular, but not limited to: Managed transnational transactions in various jurisdictions - managed project teams, handled and advised numerous transactions, represented investors in structuring and implementing their investments, supervised due diligence reviews and issued complex legal opinions;
- Advised one of the investment advisers on legal risks associated with the investment strategy of investing in the companies engaged in natural resources (survey) exploration and production activities; assisted in structuring and implementing the transactions, including structuring a new investment vehicle, acquisition and financing;
- Consulted a leading energy group concerning energy distribution pursuant to the energy markets law, including negotiations with the energy markets regulatory agency;
- Advised to a leading holding company regarding energy and capital markets law, as well as in connection with the privatization of electricity distribution companies;
- Advised an investment group on corporate relationship and various projects being developed by the holding in various regions of Ukraine;
- Managed corporate transactions – mergers and acquisitions in various jurisdictions. In particular, establishment of joint ventures; reorganizations, acquisitions of shares and capital increases;

- Advised and managed financings and bond offerings in various jurisdictions;
 - Assisted the clients in preparation for a bid. In case of successful bid, provided further assistance;
 - Represented with regard to litigations matters, enforcement of judgments and foreign arbitration awards; represented the clients and negotiated matters with government authorities.
-

Practice Location/ Jurisdiction

Georgia, Italy, Austria, Ukraine, the Russian Federation

Working Languages

Georgian
Russian
English
Italian
German

Other Relevant Experience

- Projects in jurisdictions worldwide including Georgia, the Russian Federation, Ukraine, Kazakhstan, USA, Austria, Serbia
- Admitted to the Georgian Bar, 2007