

Tibor Várady

Professor

Address: Nador utca 9, 1051 Budapest, Hungary

Nationality: Serbian and Hungarian

Current Position: University Professor at the Central European University, Budapest

---

Professional Experience

University Professor at the Central European University, Budapest;
Professor of law at the University of Novi Sad, Serbia,
Professor of law at Emory University,
Professor of law Cornell University,
Professor of law University of California, Berkeley

---

Arbitration Experience

I have acted as arbitrator in about 300 cases, including ICC, LCIA, ICSID, Court of Arbitration at the Yugoslav Chamber of Commerce, Court of Arbitration at the Serbian Chamber of Commerce, Court of Arbitration at the Hungarian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, International Arbitration Center of the Austrian Federal Economic Chamber, Court of Arbitration at the Zürich Chamber of Commerce, Court of Arbitration at the Geneva Chamber of Commerce, Court of Arbitration at the Croatian Chamber of Commerce, Court of Arbitration at the Regional Center for Commercial Arbitration in Cairo, as well as ad hoc cases.

---

Education Background

Law graduate Belgrade University,
LL.M. Belgrade University,
S.J.D. Harvard University

---

Expertise

International sales and other contracts, investments, construction

---

Practice Location/Jurisdiction

Budapest, Hungary

---

Working Languages

English
Serbian (Croatian/Bosnian/Montenegrin)
Hungarian
French
German

---

Other Relevant Experience