Arbitration Experience

Dr. Galina Zukova's practice concentrates on international commercial and investment arbitration. She represents clients, private and state entities alike, in cases conducted in accordance with the rules of the ICC, LCIA, VIAC, DIS, SCC and UNCITRAL, pursuant to different procedural and substantive laws in a broad range of fields and sectors (international sale of goods, distribution contracts, mergers and acquisitions, construction, manufacturing, infrastructure, natural resources, telecommunication). Galina also acts as arbitrator (president, sole arbitrator, emergency arbitrator and co-arbitrator) in international commercial cases. She is a listed arbitrator in several international and national arbitration institutions.

Her previous work experience includes serving as counsel at the ICC International Court of Arbitration, where she was in charge of the case management team that handled matters involving parties from Central and Eastern Europe, CIS countries, Turkey and Greece. In that role, she oversaw hundreds of arbitrations and scrutinized hundreds of arbitral awards.
