Professional Experience

Partner at Arntzen de Besche Law Firm in Oslo and Head of International Arbitration

His background is in commercial litigation. He was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 1999 (Lincoln's Inn) and he is also a member of the Norwegian Bar and of the Norwegian Supreme Court Bar. His dual qualification both as a common law barrister and as a civil law advocate provides him with particular insight in the different legal systems and serves as basis for a deeper understanding of the various challenges that may arise in international disputes.
