

Zena Prodromou

Senior Associate, Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan LLP

Nationality: Greek

Current Position: Senior Associate, Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan LLP

Senior Associate, Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan LLP

Affiliated Member, Institute of European Law, KU Leuven

Professional Experience

Counsel to international arbitration proceedings, secretary to arbitral tribunals, listed as arbitrator before a number of international arbitral institutions

Arbitration Experience

PhD in International Dispute Resolution, Magna cum Laude, University of Basel, Switzerland (2019)
Title: "The public order exception in international dispute resolution"

LL.M. in Antitrust, International Trade and Investment Arbitration, Harvard Law School, USA (2014)

LL.M. in EU Law and International Commercial Litigation, First Class Honours, University of Cambridge, UK (2012)

LL.B., Summa cum Laude, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece (2011)

Education Background

Public international law, international investment law, international trade law, law of international transactions, EU law, state aid, public procurement, antitrust, mergers and acquisitions, human rights
Expertise

EU law, international law, Greek law, UK law

Practice Location/ Jurisdiction

English, Greek, French

Working Languages

Various articles and publications in the field, including the monograph "The public order exception in international trade, investment, human rights and commercial disputes" (Kluwer, 2020)

Other Relevant Experience